WHAT TO SEE IN PARIS

Romantic Montmartre – Stroll around the picturesque alleyways in Paris's most romantic neighbourhood and enjoy panoramic views of the city from the iconic Sacré-Coeur Basilica before winding your way down to the Moulin Rouge.

Lively Le Marais – Explore the charming central district of Le Marais, filled with restaurants, bars, boutiques and museums. Whether you prefer a leisurely stroll along the River Seine, shopping in trendy Rue des Francs Bourgeois, or taking in the atmosphere of the side streets off Rue de Rivoli, there's something for everyone in Le Marais.

Must-see Museums – With around 130 museums, there's plenty to explore for every artistic taste. Enjoy modern art at The Centre Pompidou and revel in fine art masterpieces at the Musée d'Orsay and at the world's largest museum, The Louvre. If you have time, hop on a train to the grand Palace of Versailles, about 20km southwest of Paris.

Icons of Paris

No trip to Paris is complete without paying a visit to the city's many iconic landmarks, especially for first-time visitors. As well as the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, and the Arc de Triomphe, we recommend a stroll around the Palais Royal Garden and the Tuileries Garden, a public garden located between the Louvre and the Place de la Concorde
